

Day #13, Activity #13

Saturday Couplets Rising:

True ease in writing comes from art, not chance,
As those move easiest who have learn'd to dance.

—Alexander Pope, poet, satirist

Couplet: two-lines that go together and usually rhyme

This week's theme will be on "School"
I know you're thinking that's pretty cool

So share a thought from school-days past
Share some words and they will last

Of course, as always, anything goes –
Give us all your highs and lows:

Friendships, field trips, foibles, fits,
And all the juicy tiny bits

Off you go to give it a try
You will get it, by and by.

Extra Challenge: Write a poem made up of 2 or more couplets.

Submit your couplets over the next week and they might be published right here.
