

Day #6 Activity #6

Saturday Poetry: Couplets

Today is World Poetry Day: <https://poets.org/text/world-poetry-day-march-21>

A little poetry on the weekend is just what the doctor ordered so let's celebrate by writing couplets: two-lines that go together and usually rhyme.

Any subject goes.

I will offer up the first one:

*What's all this fuss about staying home?
Don't you like to be alone?*
